Notes from the President's Desk

Hello everyone. My name is Kat Harris and I am the new President of MCCA. I look forward to hearing from you and welcome your input on the direction MCCA. I am involved in writing a grant for funding for MCCA which will allow us to provide better services to our members.

MCCA continues membership with the Artists Alliance of North Florida. They will continue to update us with what is going on in the artistic and cultural activities of North Florida. You can obtain information on their website www.aaonf.org. Please feel free to take advantage of their activities as members of MCCA.

I invite you to call or e-mail me with any questions or concerns that you have. If you call, please include your area code. I had some problems in the past with not being able to contact some people because of that.

Thanks!

Bright Blessings!

Attic Art

This is a one-day art sale, scheduled for Saturday December 10, 2005 from 10 am to 5 pm. The show is designed for MCCA artists to display and sell their remaining inventory for 2005. The idea is to “clean out your attic” from all of the artwork that has been sitting around and make way for new art projects. The art show provides the public with an opportunity to purchase art for holiday gifts.

This one-day event is hosted by the Micanopy Historical Society Museum at Cholokka Blvd and Early Street in Micanopy, Florida. The artwork will be displayed in the open courtyard area. There will be tables and display panels available if requested. You are welcome to bring your art display, but no tents please. If it looks like rain we can move the art sale to a covered area on the property.

Artists Spotlight

Coral Moon Munkittrick

“Artist at Work”

Nine year old Coral Munkittrick won Best Junior Artist in the “Gallery Under the Oaks” in September. She collects bottle caps, dead batteries and other odds and ends. A few splashes of paint for accent completes her special award-winning creations. She was highly successful with selling her work at her first MCCA art show and currently has two pieces on display at the Coffee n’ Cream Shop in Micanopy. She says that her hamster, Rosey, is an inspiration to her and her sister Soleil sometimes helps with gathering the odds and ends for her works.

Born in Dunedin, Florida, Coral now lives in Gainesville with her parents, Michael and Karrie and her younger sister Soleil. She loves going to school. Some of her favorite subjects are science and social studies. Her interests for the future include being an artist, architect or scientist. She describes herself as happy, “everything makes me happy”, says Coral. When you meet her you will be happy too!

Our own Karrie Lyons-Munkittrick’s designs have been selected by the Micanopy Area Chamber of Commerce for a T-shirt and logo design. Please join me in congratulating her on her achievements.

Way to go Karrie!!!

“Battery Dead”

Hurricane Katrina Raffle at Gallery Under the Oaks: Thanks to Karrie’s compassionate spirit her idea for a raffle for the victims of Hurricane Katrina brought out the kindness and compassion of visitors and members alike. The raffle raised $410.29 which was sent to the Salvation Army to assist with the folks in the hurricane ravaged areas.

Thanks again for your participation and support to the members that donated their art work for the Art for Relief Raffle.

Thank you!
